

“Together in Thanksgiving”
William Bradbury/ Arr. Stan Pethel

Come before the God of all creation; bring our thanks and sing our praise.
May God’s blessings flow to every nation; May all children know His grace.

(Refrain)

Come together in Thanksgiving, make us one community.

Come together, praise the one God; Bless and grant us unity.

Every breath and all new life beginning is created by God’s hand.

Every mountain, every river flowing shapes the beauty of our land.

(Refrain)

Come, rejoicing with our joyful anthem, music for our Lord to hear.

Raise our voices in an alleluia, singing praise loud and clear.

(Refrain)

“God of the Harvest”
Gabriel Wilson

You paint the fields golden with the wheat that is growing,
All the grains of abundance which you’ve ordained,
soak the land with water, as You bless Your sons and daughters,
Making seeds sprout as You pour out Your refreshing rain.
You are the God of the harvest, we will sing a song of praise.
You are the God of the harvest,
We will magnify Your name as we Work! Thresh! Plow!
Worshipping as we Till! Mill! Sweat!
Worshipping as we Sift! Rake! Reap!
Worshipping as we Dig! Hoe! Sow!
