

“Noel” (He Is Born)
Tomme Profitt / arr. Dan Galbraith

The first Noel the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay.
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep on a cold winter’s night that was so deep.
Noel! Born is the King of Israel!

Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord that hath made heaven’s and earth of night, and with His blood mankind has bought.
Noel! Born is the King of Israel!

He is born, The Son of God has come to dwell.
The King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, Emmanuel.
He is born! Hope for all! Now go and tell He has come to save the world.
We sing Noel!

Carol of the Questioning Children”

Where was Jesus born today, in the morning, in the morning?
In a stable far away, in the morning, in the morning. Alleluia!

Do you know if gifts there were, in the morning, in the morning?
There was incense, gold, and myrrh, in the morning, in the morning.

Who was there to welcome Him, in the morning, in the morning?
Oxen, sheep, and seraphim, in the morning, in the morning.

Alleluia! Cherubim and seraphim. Singing alleluia!

Thank you all for what you say, in the morning, in the morning.
Jesus Christ was born today, in the morning, in the morning.
In a stable far away, in the morning, in the morning.
