after registration has closed.

“HARNESSING YOUR GOD-GIVEN GIFTS FOR THE FUTURE OF THE CHURCH!”

Please join us Saturday, February 4th from 10am-2pm, as NYAC laity comes together for a time of fellowship, re-connection, and learning. It's an exciting time for laity as we've been called to lean into our unique gifts and graces for the future of our church.

As many of you know, the New York Annual Conference has already transitioned into a Cooperative Parish model of ministry where laity will be called to come along side our clergy in new and exciting ways.

Go here to learn more and review the resources on Cooperative Parish ministry in the NYAC.

During our convocation we will learn more about what we can expect and how will we be called to lead in this effort. Bishop Bickerton will be joined by Rev. Doris Dalton to offer important information and insights and answer questions to ensure we are all equipped to move in new directions with this innovative Ministry model. We will also have a short overview presentation, "Cooperative Parish Ministry: What Laity Needs to Know" to set the stage for what we know will be a robust question and answer session with Bishop and Rev. Dalton.

The possibilities for higher levels of mission and ministry are endless!

We are expecting a healthy turnout on Saturday, February 4 from 10am - 2:00pm. Please go here to register as soon as possible.

We look forward to seeing you at Laity Convocation.

Peace and Blessings,

Roena

Conference Lay Leader
