Souper Bowl Donations from CUMC

Peggy and Bob Racine picked up the cans of soup donated for Souper Bowl Sunday and other donated food items and delivered them to Long Island Cares on Tuesday, February 14th.

By weight, there was 162 lbs., filling two shopping carts!! Long Island Cares told Peggy and Bob that there is a great need for food at this time and were grateful for CUMC's donations and support.

Finished your book!

The Thrift Shop is looking for some current best sellers to fill its shelves. Perhaps you are a fast reader, and already you have completed that Christmas novel. We would really appreciate it if you donated it to the shop. Or maybe you have no place to keep last year's favorites. We could use them!!!

We DO NOT want cartons of donated books!!! Just hoping to get one or two from you!

*You may bring them to church with you on Sunday morning. Please see Gina or Peggy.
Thank you*

Thrift Shop

The Thrift Shop is looking for you to donate your old 45s or LP record albums. Several of our customers have asked for them, and our supply is limited. So if you can part with some of those "Oldies but Goodies", it would be appreciated.
