Altar Guild Leader Needed

Our sweet Pat Hansen has retired from her position as Leader of CUMC's Altar Guild. Pat was responsible for decorating the altar by changing the flowers and other decorative elements with the changing of the seasons. We appreciate her dedication and hard work for so many years. Now we need someone to pick up the torch. If you are interested, please see Barbara Dillon or Holly Aarseth for more information or call the Church Office.

Thank you!

A memorial service for Jeff will be scheduled in the near future.

Food Collection

CUMC collects food for the needy on an ongoing basis. There is a basket in the narthex for non-perishable food collection. When the basket is full, volunteers deliver your donations to a local food pantry. While doing your food shopping, please keep our neighbors in need in mind and then add an item to the basket on Sundays.

Thank you for your continued support of this important CUMC ministry.

The Sunday Chuckle

A rooster wakes up early Easter Sunday morning. He sticks his head out of the chicken coop, and sees all these multicolored eggs all over the barnyard. He takes a look at the eggs, takes a look at the hens, takes another look at the eggs, takes one more look at the hens, he thinks about it for a minute, then he walks across the barnyard and beats up the peacock.

For the month of March, for every Stop & Shop's Bloomin' 4 Good Bouquet sold at their Seaford location, CUMC will get $1. Brighten someone's day and help your church with one easy purchase. Only available at the Seaford Stop & Shop at 4055 Merrick Rd.
