

United Methodists vow to faithfully participate in the church's ministries by their prayers, their presence, their gifts, their service, and their witness.

How can we go beyond the words we profess to fully living through our United Methodist vows? Explore your vows with this five-part series.

When we become professing members of a United Methodist congregation, we profess our faith in God, our desire to live as disciples of Jesus Christ, and our commitment to join with our church community to keep the vows of our Baptismal Covenant.

One of those vows is to faithfully participate in the life and ministries of our local congregation through our prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness. But how can we go beyond the words we profess to actually living into these vows?

In this five-week sermon series, we'll look at each aspect of this membership vow and how United Methodists can answer the call to serve Christ through the local church.
