

A MOMENT OF HEALING BLESSINGS

April 19, 2026

Beloved in Christ, we come to God who sees us, knows us, and desires our wholeness.

Scripture reminds us:

“Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).

And again, “He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds” (Psalm 147:3).

Today, we are invited to come just as we are. Whether you carry physical pain, emotional wounds, spiritual weariness, or burdens too deep for words, you are welcome in this moment. Come and open your heart to the healing grace of Christ.

INVITATION TO HEALING

All who wish to receive a healing blessing are invited to come forward.

Those who remain seated are invited to pray for those on our prayer list or to write a prayer gram for a person in need of God’s healing and mercy. If you want a prayer gram card, raise your hand. One of our ushers will bring it to you. You can place it in the offering plate during the offertory.

Whether we move or remain still, we are united in prayer. As the apostle Paul reminds us, “Pray in the Spirit at all times” (Ephesians 6:18).

PRAYER FOR HEALING by Anthony Gittens

Heavenly father with thanksgiving and praise to the one God who is worthy to be praised. We bless the holy name of God with all our hearts. Yes, we will bless the Lord and not forget the glorious things He does for us. He forgives all our sins, and He heals us. Gracious and faithful God, full of glory, wonders and everlasting life, we come before You with open hearts seeking your holy presence-because Lord, how deeply we need you. You are our refuge and our healer, our restorer. In the quiet places of our soul, we carry burdens, wounds and weariness that only your divine touch can mend.

A MOMENT OF HEALING BLESSINGS

April 19, 2026

Beloved in Christ, we come to God who sees us, knows us, and desires our wholeness.

Scripture reminds us:

“Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).

And again, “He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds” (Psalm 147:3).

Today, we are invited to come just as we are. Whether you carry physical pain, emotional wounds, spiritual weariness, or burdens too deep for words, you are welcome in this moment. Come and open your heart to the healing grace of Christ.

INVITATION TO HEALING

All who wish to receive a healing blessing are invited to come forward.

Those who remain seated are invited to pray for those on our prayer list or to write a prayer gram for a person in need of God’s healing and mercy. If you want a prayer gram card, raise your hand. One of our ushers will bring it to you. You can place it in the offering plate during the offertory.

Whether we move or remain still, we are united in prayer. As the apostle Paul reminds us, “Pray in the Spirit at all times” (Ephesians 6:18).

PRAYER FOR HEALING by Anthony Gittens

Heavenly father with thanksgiving and praise to the one God who is worthy to be praised. We bless the holy name of God with all our hearts. Yes, we will bless the Lord and not forget the glorious things He does for us. He forgives all our sins, and He heals us. Gracious and faithful God, full of glory, wonders and everlasting life, we come before You with open hearts seeking your holy presence-because Lord, how deeply we need you. You are our refuge and our healer, our restorer. In the quiet places of our soul, we carry burdens, wounds and weariness that only your divine touch can mend.

Lord, we acknowledge our brokenness, we know that in Your hands, broken things are made beautiful. You alone have the power to restore us to renew our hearts, revive our spirit and bring wholeness where there is pain. With faith we call upon You now. Pour out Your healing grace upon us now. Let the precious blood of your son Jesus Christ wash over us and bring renewal to every weary soul. We believe in your promise to restore what is lost and to breathe new life in dry places. We trust you, Lord, and we receive your healing, not by strength, but by Your mercy and power. In the mighty and matchless name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Lord, we acknowledge our brokenness, we know that in Your hands, broken things are made beautiful. You alone have the power to restore us to renew our hearts, revive our spirit and bring wholeness where there is pain. With faith we call upon You now. Pour out Your healing grace upon us now. Let the precious blood of your son Jesus Christ wash over us and bring renewal to every weary soul. We believe in your promise to restore what is lost and to breathe new life in dry places. We trust you, Lord, and we receive your healing, not by strength, but by Your mercy and power. In the mighty and matchless name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.